In an individual's college life, two events hold the utmost importance: FRESHERS and FAREWELL. College is another home, and freshers is the occasion to make them feel comfortable at their new home.

Keeping this in mind, the Department of Commerce organized their freshers on 24th January 2023. The theme for this year was BOLLYWOOD. Every fresher was seen wearing vibrant dresses impersonating their beloved character and its element. To add life to the event, the organizing department planned fun and unique games. After the refreshing games, the Freshers were called upon to showcase their talents by various solo dance performances, poem citations.

The event was concluded with an exuberant dance performance which was followed by a cake cutting ceremony held for the freshers. Everyone gathered and began to dance together to Bollywood music with pure bliss.
