

WOMEN'S STUDIES CENTRE
Jesus and Mary College

presents a

WORKSHOP

Indigenous and Anti-Caste Epistemologies in Feminism

21st March

26th March

28th March

21st March

Inaugral Address

11:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Theme: Centering Marginalized Knowledge Systems in Feminism

Niamkoi Lam (Assistant Professor, Jesus and Mary College, University of Delhi)

Session 1: Rethinking the Public and Private Debate in Feminist Analysis

12:00 PM - 01:00 PM

Theme: Caste and Gender in Public and Private Spaces

Dr. Smita Patil (Associate Professor, School of Gender and Development Studies, IGNOU)

Interactive Activity 1

01:00 PM - 02:00 PM

Activity Title: Mapping Public and Private through Feminist Perspectives

Facilitator: Jessy K Phillip (Assistant Professor, Jesus and Mary College, University of Delhi)

SEMINAR ROOM (L Building) 11:30 AM-2:00 PM

26th March

Lecture: Introducing Indigenous Epistemologies in Feminism

12:30 PM - 2:00 PM

Niamkoi Lam (Assistant Professor,
Jesus and Mary College, University of Delhi)

Theme: Understanding Indigenous Epistememes in Feminist Thought

Overview: This session will provide a theoretical introduction to indigenous epistemologies, their relevance in feminist studies, and their intersections with anti-caste discourse.

ROOM 301 12:30 PM-2:00 PM

28th March

PRAXIS AND LITERARY ENGAGEMENTS IN INDIGENOUS AND ANTI-CASTE FEMINISM

Session 2: Decolonizing the Canon-Vernacular Literatures and Indigenous
Feminist Thought
11:30 AM - 12:30 PM

Theme: Exploring Indigenous Feminist Epistemologies through Vernacular Literatures

Speaker: Dr. Snehalata (Assistant Professor, Jesus and Mary College, University of Delhi)

Interactive Activity 2

12:30 PM - 2:00 PM

Activity Title: Engaging Literature through Intersectional Lenses

Facilitator: Ishita Singh (Assistant Professor, Jesus and Mary College, University of Delhi)

SEMINAR ROOM (L Building) 11:30 AM-2:00 PM